

The Maya Of Eternal Time - Drunvalo Melchizedek

This is a profound web broadcast of Drunvalo Melchizedek about the mayan prophecies about 2012, The leader of the mayan council of elders Don Alejandro Cirilo Perez has given his approval to Drunvalo to tell the world what the mayans themselves have to say about the 2012 prophecies, this is the first time they reveal to the world what they think will happen.

We are going to enter into ancient Atlantis because it is where our story begins. And is something that must be done simply because this is exactly where our present-day troubles were created. Long ago, over 13,000 years ago, the human grids of consciousness began to collapse and humanity began to lose their higher consciousness. It is what the Bible called the Fall. Something had to be done or humanity would end up no higher than the animals. But as the Earth's axis shifted to a new location and Atlantis sank below the ocean levels, and the Maya, Kogi and Arjarcos headed in their boats to new lands, humanity also began to sink below the levels of awareness that were once achieved. Men and women more advanced than we are now quickly became hairy barbarians with not even the knowledge to light a fire.

Their Mer-Ka-Ba fields, their light bodies, had been shut down leaving them exposed to the effects of the Earth's magnetic field having been shut off. The memories of humanity were erased. In a far distance place a decision was made, and a global project was begun here on Earth to bring the humans back to their rightful consciousness level, but it would take 13,000 years, to where we are right now in time. And what Life knows is that to save a race of beings in this way doesn't always work, but this time it did. This is the true story of how certain humans who were exempt from the Fall, rose to the occasion and long ago began to develop massive Earth geomancy to recreate a specific human grid of consciousness that surrounded the Earth so that someday humanity could return to the higher levels of consciousness they had once achieved. Every life form on Earth must have a consciousness grid that completely surrounds the Earth in order for it to exist.

Without these grids, there is no awareness. When you understand the science that is behind this story, it will amaze you. And when you understand the results of this 13,000 years experiment, you will be filled with joy. For what has happened is no less than the Birth of a New Humanity. YOU will see, for you are about to live it. Beyond 2012 indeed! We as the human race are just beginning. Again. And I am honored to give you this wonderful news.

From my heart,
